RE: Request for authorization to distribute modified Accellera [Name of Standard] LRM

Dear [Chairman Name]:

[Licensing Company Name] (hereafter referred to as "Licensee") wishes to distribute the Accellera [Name of Standard] LRM in modified form to add comments relative to Licensee's software implementations and to identify unimplemented/partially-implemented features. This will make it easier for users of Licensee's software to determine what features and functionality in the LRM are implemented (or not) without having to compare the Licensee's software documentation to the unmodified LRM. In summary, Licensee wants to make the adoption of [Name of Standard] as easy as possible. Accordingly, Licensee is requesting a license from Accellera to accomplish the foregoing.

By signing the acknowledgment below, Accellera does hereby grant to Licensee a nonexclusive, irrevocable, perpetual, worldwide, assignable, fully paid up, royalty free license under Accellera copyrights to copy, distribute, display, perform, execute, and prepare derivative works of the Accellera [Name Of Standard] LRM (including the right to copy, distribute, display, perform, and execute such derivative works) without duty of accounting. This license shall be valid as long as Licensee has paid the annual fee according to the current fee schedule, and for this fee, Licensee is entitled to the current version of the LRM.

The right to prepare derivative works shall be limited to the following:

- Reformatting, repaginating, and altering font size/selection;
- Altering the color, font, or background of the text of constructs not yet implemented;
- Changing the description of partially implemented features by striking through or bracketing deleted text and adding different text in another color or font;
- Adding marginal notations regarding implemented/partially implemented/unimplemented features; and
- Adding a notice "Portions Copyright © [Licensing Company Name] 2005. All rights reserved. Used by permission." below the Accellera copyright notice to indicate that the LRM is a modified version.

Thank you in advance for your prompt cooperation.

Sincerely,
[Licensing Company Name]

Acknowledged & agreed,
